4.4. Subjects of Study [B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) Five Years Integrated Course]

TOTAL PAPERS = 64 (SIXTY FOUR) [DETAILED SCHEME IN THE PROSPECTUS]

5. CLASS ATTENDANCE

- 5.1 Every student shall be required to attend minimum 75% (Seventy Five Per cent) Lectures in each subject during each semester.
- 5.2 If any student falls short of mandatory attendance of 75% (Seventy Five Per cent), s/he shall not be allowed to appear in the End Semester Examination as well in the Re-Appear/Repeat Examination. Such student shall be required to re-register for the course subsequently in the semester when the course is offered.
- 5.3 Benefits of additional lectures may be given to those students who shall represent the University (with prior written permission from the Vice-Chancellor) in academic programme as well as in co-curricular activities. These, inter alia, may include participation and representation in Academic Exchange Programmes, Conferences,

Seminars, Study Sessions, Summer Programmes, Symposia, Training Programmes, Workshops, and in Debates, Declamations, Mock Parliaments, Mock Trials, Moot Competitions, Quiz and other competitions.

- 5.4 In cases of serious medical ailments, when a student is admitted as an 'In Patient' in a doctor's clinic / nursing home / hospital (government or private) recognized by the University, or otherwise remains confined to bed on the written recommendations of a registered medical practitioner (including a medical specialist or a surgeon), the number of classes missed by the student concerned due to his serious illness shall be deducted from the total number of classes held and his/her attendance shall be calculated accordingly.
- 5.5 A student may be allowed Medical Leave on the production of an authentic and genuine medical certificate from a competent medical practitioner.
- 5.6 Notwithstanding anything mentioned in the above paragraphs, no relaxation is permissible below 75% (Seventy Five Percent) even on medical grounds.
- 5.7 Addition of lectures for participation and concession to be given on the basis of application for medical treatment shall be considered by an Attendance Consideration Committee (ACC) constituted by the Vice-Chancellor for this purpose. The decision of the Committee shall be final.
- 5.8 Cases of extreme hardship relating to shortage of attendance, if any, may be placed before the Executive Council of the University on the recommendations of the aforementioned Attendance Consideration Committee.
- 5.9 In case it is detected that a student had submitted a false/forged document (including a certificate of participation/medical certificate) to the University to seek false attendance / additional lectures, s/he will not be allowed to sit in the examination and disciplinary action shall be taken against him/her.

6. BREAK-UP OF PAPERS AND THE EXAMINATION PATTERN

The break-up of each paper shall be as under:

- 6.1 Each paper shall consist of Four Modules and the entire syllabi of each paper shall ideally be divided into these Four Modules.
- 6.2 Whereas the Mid-Semester Examination paper shall be set out of the Two Modules covered by the teacher concerned in each subject, the End-Semester Examination Paper shall be set out of the complete syllabi reflected in Four Modules.

6.3 Pattern of the Question Paper for the Mid-Semester

6.3.1 The division of marks for each paper for the Mid-Semester Examination shall be as under:

Section A	16 (Sixteen) Marks
Section B	56 (Fifty Six) Marks
Section C	28 (Twenty Eight) Marks

Total Marks = 100 (One Hundred) Marks

6.3.2 There shall be Three Sections in the Mid-Semester Question Paper

6.3.3 Section A of the paper shall be compulsory. It shall contain 4 (Four) Questions - two questions each from the First and the Second Module of the Syllabus. Each question shall carry 4 (Four) Marks.

4X4 = 16 (Sixteen) Marks

6.3.4 Section B of the paper shall contain 10 (Ten) Questions - five questions each from the First and the Second Module of the Syllabus. A candidate may attempt any 8 (Eight) questions out of 10 (Ten). Each question shall carry 7 (Seven) Marks.

8X7 = 56 (Fifty Six) Marks

6.3.5 Section C of the paper shall contain 4 (Four) Questions - two questions each from First and Second Module of the Syllabus. A candidate may attempt any 2 (Two) questions. Each question shall carry 14 (Fourteen) Marks.

2X14 = 28 (Twenty Eight) Marks

Note: After evaluation, the marks secured by each student shall be calculated out of 10% (Ten Percent) marks proportionately.

6.4 Pattern of the Question Paper for the End-Semester

6.4.1 The division of marks for each paper for the End-Semester Examination shall be as under:

Section A	16 (Sixteen) Marks
Section B	56 (Fifty Six) Marks
Section C	28 (Twenty Eight) Marks

Total Marks = 100 (One Hundred) Marks

6.4.2 There shall be Three Sections in the End-Semester Question Paper

6.4.3 Section A of the paper shall be compulsory. It shall contain 4 (Four) Questions - one question from each module. Each question shall carry 4 (Four) Marks.

4X4 = 16 (Sixteen) Marks

6.4.4 Section B of the paper shall contain 12 (Ten) Questions - three questions from each module. A candidate may attempt 8 (Eight) questions out of 12 (Twelve) - selecting atleast 2 (two) questions from each module. Each question shall carry 7 (Seven) Marks.

8X7 = 56 (Fifty Six) Marks

6.4.5 Section C of the paper shall contain 4 (Four) Questions - one question from each module. A candidate may attempt any 2 (Two) questions. Each question shall carry 14 (Fourteen) Marks.

2X14 = 28 (Twenty Eight) Marks

Note: After evaluation, the marks secured by each student shall be calculated out of 40% (Forty Percent) marks proportionately.

6.5 Pattern for the Practical Work (Seminars and Projects)

6.5.1 A Project Topic for each paper shall be allotted to a group of Three to Four Students within one week of commencement of each semester. In no case, the Project Topic shall be changed.

6.5.2 Prior to the final submission, the group shall be required to submit a Rough Draft of the project for the consideration and approval of the subject teacher. The Rough Draft shall carry 5 (Five) Marks. Once the Rough Draft is approved by the subject teacher, the group shall start working on the project in the light of the comments, corrections and suggestions offered by the teacher concerned.

6.5.3 Each student (as part of a group) shall also be required to prepare and present a Seminar individually in the form of a Power Point Presentation on any one aspect of the Project (mutually identified by the members of the group among themselves) on a date to be fixed by the University. The Seminar shall be taken by the subject teacher concerned. In case due to any reason, the teacher concerned is not available, the Vice-Chancellor may depute any other teacher to take the seminar.

6.5.4 Paper reading shall not be allowed. Only Power Point Presentation is allowed.

- 6.5.5 Before the End-Semester Examination, each group of students shall have to submit a written project as well as to appear individually in the Viva-Voce Examination to defend his/her Project on which s/he had earlier given the Seminar.
- 6.5.6 The written project shall comprise 30-40 pages typed in 12 size font (preferably in one of these fonts: Areal / Calibry / Geneva / New Century Gothic /New York / Times New Roman) on an A-4 size paper (single side) in 1.5 space. It shall include foot notes / end-notes / references / bibliography and should be bound (spirally or otherwise).
- 6.5.7 The Project shall be submitted to the Subject Teacher / Project Co-ordinator on a specific date (to be notified by the University) before the commencement of the End-Term Examination every semester.
- 6.5.8 Ordinarily no extension shall be given for the late submission of the Project. However, due to unavoidable circumstances (to be mentioned in the written application along with the supporting documents), a group may be allowed to submit the project late by maximum one week subject to the condition of fine of Rs. 500/- (Rupees Five Hundred Only). No further relaxation shall be given in any case.
- 6.5.9 The project should ideally be based on the original and bonafide research work (library based or field visit based) carried out by the group for the purpose. Originality shall be encouraged, however, if the contents of a project completely and totally resemble the contents of the project of another / earlier group, action for resorting to plagiarism shall be taken against the group as per the University Regulations.
- 6.5.10 Evaluation of the project shall be done on the following basis
- (i) Preliminaries, Chapterisation, and Contents of the Project
 - (ii) Continuous Evaluation based on the Progress of the Project
 - (iii) Style of Presentation and Ability to defend in Viva Voce
- 6.5.11 The evaluation of the written project and presentation/viva voce of the same shall be conducted jointly by one internal and one external examiner to be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor.
- 6.5.12 In case a student fails to attend a Viva-Voce / Seminar Presentation on the scheduled day without prior written permission from the Registrar or the Teacher-In-Charge Examinations, the student concerned will be awarded Zero Marks for the Viva-Voce / Seminar Presentation in the course concerned.

6.5.13 There shall be no re-scheduling of dates and timings for Seminar Presentation / Project Submission / Conducting of Viva-Voce for a group / student absents themselves / himself / herself from the event without any reason whatsoever. No second chance shall be given and the result of such group of students / student shall be declared as 'Re-appear (Practical Examination).

Provided that if a student represents the University in any of the aforementioned events with the due authorization of the University, the date of his/her seminar presentation/project submission/ viva-voce may be re-scheduled.

Provided further that the seminar presentation / project submission / viva-voce of a student who fails to present / appear due to serious illness / accident / death of his/her immediate family member, may be re-scheduled subject to the production of necessary documentary proof to be submitted along with a written application by the student concerned.

6.6 Pattern for Attendance

The break-up of marks for the attendance shall be as under:

Marks for Class Attendance

(i)	Between 96% to 100%	05 Marks
(ii)	Between 91% to 95%	04 Marks
(iii)	Between 86% to 90%	03 Marks
(iv)	Between 80% to 85%	02 Marks
(v)	Between 75% to 79%	01 Marks

7. CONDUCT OF EXAMINATION

For each subject, the Scheme of Examination shall be as under: (I) Mid-Semester Examination; and (II) End-Semester Examination. The Examination (both Mid-Semester as well as End-Semester) shall be conducted under the supervision of the Co-ordinator of Examination, appointed for each semester by the Vice-Chancellor. The co-ordinator shall further appoint invigilators to perform the examination duty. The co-ordinator shall ensure that ideally there may be one invigilator per 30 (thirty) candidates. However, in case of need, the co-ordinator may also appoint non-teaching staff on examination duty.

7.1 Conduct of the Mid-Semester Examination

- 7.1.1 The Mid-Semester Written Examination shall be held in the months of September in the First Semester and in the month of March in the Second Semester respectively in each academic year. The duration of both the Mid-Semester as well as that of the End-Semester Examination shall be three hours.
- 7.1.2 The Mid-Semester Examination shall be held only once in each semester on the notified dates and in no case, the Mid-Semester Examination shall be re-conducted.
- 7.1.3 In case of any clash between the dates of the Mid-Semester Examination and the date/s of any event / competition, for which a student/s have been deputed to represent the University, or a student who is to appear for the SSB / State / Central Services Interview, his/her marks in the End-Semester Examination shall be proportionately calculated out of 50% (Fifty Percent) marks in lieu of 40% (Forty Percent) marks of the respective subject.

Provided further that the cases of serious illness / accident, on the recommendations of the committee constituted by the Vice-Chancellor may also be covered under the above provision, subject to the submission of an application supported by the requisite documentary proof of the illness / accident as well as an authentic and genuine certificate from the competent person immediately on joining after the medical treatment and informing the University prior to the commencement of the examination / paper.

- 7.1.4 The Mid-Semester Examination shall be conducted for each subject. It shall carry 100 (One Hundred Marks). The marks secured by a student shall be divided by 10 for the purpose of final assessment.
- 7.1.5 The syllabi for the Mid-Semester Examination shall be notified by the teacher concerned at least one week before the commencement of the examination.
- 7.1.6 A student may make a request to see his/her answer sheet of the mid-semester and the same may be shown to him.

7.2 Conduct of the End-Semester Examination

- 7.2.1 There shall be a Theory Examination for each paper at the end of each semester. The duration of the End-Semester Examination shall be three hours.
- 7.2.2 Each subject shall carry 100 (One Hundred) marks. For the purposes of the final assessment, these 100 (One Hundred) marks shall be converted to 40%.

- 7.2.3 The pass percentage shall be 50% (Fifty Percent) in Theory (Mid-Term and End-Term taken together) in each subject and in Practical Part (Seminar Presentation, Written Project Submission, Viva-Voce, and Attendance).
- 7.2.4 Each student shall have to clear Theory Examination and Practical Examination separately and shall have to secure 50% (Fifty Percent) marks independently both in theory as well as in practical.
- 7.2.5 A candidate who fails in the Theory Examination shall have to re-appear in the Theory Examination. However, in case of such candidate, the marks secured by him/her in the Practical Examination (Seminar / Project Submission / Viva-Voce / Attendance) shall be carried forward.
- 7.2.6 A candidate who fails to secure 50% (Fifty Percent) marks in the aggregate in the Practical Part shall have to give the Seminar Presentation as well as to appear in the Project Viva Voce afresh. However, the marks secured by him for class attendance and regularity shall be carried forward.

Provided that a candidate studying in the Seventh to Tenth Semesters who fail to secure minimum 50% (Fifty Percent) marks in any part, that is, in case of Written Project Submission or Moot Court Memorial Submission / Moot Court Presentation etc. of Paper VI separately shall re-appear in that part only in which s/he fails to secure 50% (Fifty Percent) marks in the subsequent examination. The marks of the part in which the candidate secures pass marks shall, however, be carried forward.

- 7.2.7 A Re-Appear Candidate shall be required to pass the remaining paper/s in which s/he has failed within three consecutive chances, that is, a student shall have three chances in total to pass a paper, once as a regular student and twice as a re-appear candidate, failing which s/he shall have to appear afresh in all the papers of that particular semester within the period prescribed in the University Regulations.

7.3 Appointment of Paper Setters

The teacher teaching the subject shall set the Question Paper. However, where a subject / paper is jointly or collaborately taught by two or more than two teachers respectively, each one of them shall be required to set the questions for the part of syllabi / module taught by him/her. Provided that the Vice-Chancellor may, in certain appropriate circumstances, get the paper set / paper vetted from an outside subject expert / examiner.

7.4 Evaluation of Answer Scripts

Evaluation of answer scripts for the Mid-Semester Examination as well as for the End-Semester Examination shall be done by the teacher teaching the subject. Provided that the University may, in certain circumstances, get the answer sheets evaluated from outside subject expert / examiner.

7.5 Disposal of Complaints Relating to Examination

7.5.1 In case of variation of percentage and in case of any complaint received in regard to a question paper, the Vice-Chancellor may appoint a Moderation Committee. The term of the aforementioned Moderation Committee shall be for a specific duration as decided by the Vice-Chancellor. The Moderation Committee shall comprise the following:

- (i) Registrar (Chairman)
- (ii) Subject Teacher Concerned
- (iii) One faculty member to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor

7.5.2 Complaints, if any, regarding a question paper shall not be entertained after 24 (twenty four) hours of conduct of that examination regarding which the complaint is made. The complaint shall be made in writing to the Co-ordinator of Examinations.

7.5.3 The Co-ordinator of Examinations shall forward the complaints to the Registrar after taking comments in writing from the subject teacher within two days of submission of the written complaint. The Registrar shall then take the comments of the paper setter, if s/he is different from the one who taught the subject. Otherwise the Registrar shall place the matter before the Moderation Committee for seeking their recommendations for moderation of result, if any.

7.5.4 In case of any extra-ordinary variation in percentage of result in any subject/s, the result shall be put up before the Moderation Committee.

7.5.5 The Moderation Committee shall, upon examination of the report submitted under the provision of Regulation 7.5.4 and result variation under Regulation 7.5.4 shall make recommendations to the Vice-Chancellor whose decision shall be final in this regard.

8. DECLARATION OF RESULT AND AWARD OF DEGREE

8.1 Ordinarily the result of the Semester Examination shall be published within one month of the completion of examination by the University.

- 8.2 Detailed Marks Card shall be issued within 10 (Ten) days from the date of publication of the result.
- 8.3 It is necessary to secure at least 50% (Fifty Percent) marks separately in both Theory and Practical to pass in a respective course.
- 8.4 A student passing all the courses with an aggregate of 50% (Fifty Per cent) marks shall be awarded the degree of B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) Five Years Integrated Course as per the following criteria of division:
- (A) First Class with Outstanding Grade: To those who obtain 80% (Eighty Per cent or more marks;
 - (B) First Class with Excellent Grade: To those who obtain 75% (Seventy Five Per cent) to 79% (Seventy Nine Per cent) marks;
 - (C) First Class with Distinction: To those who obtain 70% (Seventy Per cent) to 74% (Seventy Four Per cent) marks;
 - (D) High First Class: To those who obtain 65% (Sixty Five Per cent) to 69% (Sixty Nine Per cent) marks;
 - (E) First Class: To those who obtain 60% (Sixty Per cent) to 64% (Sixty Four Per cent) marks;
 - (F) High Second Class: To those who obtain 55% (Fifty Five Per cent) marks to 59% (Fifty Nine Per cent)
 - (G) Second Class: 50% (Fifty Per cent) to 54% (Fifty Four Per cent) marks
 - (H) Fail: Below 50% (Fifty Per cent)
- 8.4 The medium of instructions / examination shall be mentioned in the Degree awarded to the candidate.

9. AWARD OF GRADE POINTS

- 9.1 A student shall be awarded Semester Grade Point Average / Annual Grade Point Average / Cumulative Grade Point Average and Grades on the basis of the following criteria:

Score (%)	Grade	Grade Point
Above 80%	Outstanding (O)	8.0
75-80%	Excellent (E)	7.5
70-74%	Distinction (D)	7.0

65-69%	High First Class (A+)	6.0
60-64%	First Class (A)	5.0
55-59%	High Second Class (B+)	4.0
50-54%	Second Class	3.0
Below 50	Fail	0.0

9.2 All subjects in the B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) Five Years Integrated Course in Law shall carry 100 (One Hundred) marks. Therefore, each subject shall carry equal credit, that is, 5 (Five) Credits.

9.3 The Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) shall be calculated as under:

- (i) Giving Grade Point for each subject with reference to the table given above; and
- (ii) Dividing the total Grade Point of all the papers in the semester by the number of papers.

9.4 The Annual Grade Point Average (AGPA) shall be calculated by adding the total grade point of both the semesters in an academic year and dividing by two.

9.5 The Cumulative Grade Point Average shall be calculated by adding total of all previous semesters grade point and dividing by the number of semesters.

10. CALCULATION OF GRADE POINTS

Calculation of Grade Point may be better understood through a hypothetical example as under:

A student Mr. 'X' of B.A.,LL.B. (Hons.) Five Year Integrated Course scores marks/grade points/grade as follows:

Semester Grade Point Average

First Semester

SN	Subject	Marks Obtained	Grade Point	Grade
1	English - I	67	6	A+
2	History - I	58	4	B+
3	Sociology - I	63	5	A

4	Political Science - I	72	7	D
5	Law of Torts and Consumer Protection	76	7.5	E
6	Legal Methods and Social Sciences Research Methodology	82	8	O

Total Grade Points = 37.5

Now Mr. X's Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) for First Semester will be $37.5 \div 6 = 6.25$

Second Semester

Now, let's consider the performance of Mr. 'X' in the Second Semester. Say, Mr. X Scores in his Second Semester of B.A.,LL.B. (Hons.) Five Year Integrated Course as follows:

SN	Subject	Marks Obtained	Grade Point	Grade
1	English - II	53	3	B
2	History - II	79	7.5	E
3	Sociology - II	67	6	A+
4	Political Science - II	59	4	B+
5	Comparative Legal Systems	62	5	A
6	Law of Contract	71	7	D

Total Grade Point = 32.5

Now, Mr. X's Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) for Second Semester will be $32.5 \div 6 = 5.42$

Annual Grade Point Average

The Annual Grade Point Average (AGPA) for the first year will be average of SGPA of First Semester and SGPA of Second Semester i.e. $6.25 + 5.42 = 11.67/2 = 5.84$ (AGPA of First Year).

Cumulative Grade Point Average

Now say Semester Grade Point of Mr. X for the third and fourth semester are 8.0 and 7.0 respectively. The Annual Grade Point for Second year would be

7.5. The Cumulative Graded Point/Average (CGPA) for the first two years would be

AGPA of First Year + AGPA of Second Year / 2

For student 'X' CGPC for first two years would be $5.84 + 7.5 = 13.34/2 = 6.67$

In this manner AGPA of each year would be calculated. If student 'X' has AGPA for all five years of the B.A.,LL.B. Course as under:

First Year	5.84
Second Year	7.5
Third Year	8
Fourth Year	8
Fifth Year	7.25
Total	36.59

This student would have CGPA for

First Two Years	$5.84 + 7.5 = 13.34/2 = 6.67$
First Three Years	$13.34 + 8.0 = 21.34/3 = 7.11$
First Four Years	$21.34 + 8 = 29.34/4 = 7.34$
First Five Years	$29.34 + 7.25 = 36.59/5 = 7.32$

On award of the degree, the CGPA of Mr. 'X' would be 7.32 with Grade D (DISTINCTION).

11. MODIFICATION OF RESULT

11.1 The Vice-Chancellor shall have the power to order the quashing of the declared result of a candidate if:

- (i) The candidate is disqualified for using any type of unfair means in the examination, or
- (ii) She/he is otherwise found ineligible to appear in the examination.

11.2 The Vice-Chancellor shall have the power to order the rectification of the result if an error affecting the result of a candidate is detected.

12. PROMOTION TO HIGHER SEMESTER/S

12.1 The promotion from the First Semester to the Second Semester shall be automatic.

- 12.2 A candidate shall be promoted to the Third Semester only if s/he clears 75% (Seventy Five Percent) of the papers of the First Semester and Second Semester.
- 12.3 A candidate shall be promoted to the Fifth Semester provided s/he clears all the papers of the First and Second Semester and 75% (Seventy Five Percent) papers of the Third and Fourth Semester.
- 12.4 A candidate shall be promoted to the Seventh Semester provided s/he clears all the papers of the first four semesters and 75% (Seventy Five Percent) papers of the Fifth and Sixth Semesters.
- 12.5 A candidate shall be promoted to the Ninth Semester provided s/he clears all the papers of the First Six Semesters and 75% (Seventy Five Percent) papers of the Seventh and Eighth Semesters.
- 12.6 Provided that a candidate who is to repeat the whole course as per the Regulation 7.2.6 shall be required to pass all the papers of both the semesters within three years of his/her admission in the respective academic year.
- 12.7 A candidate shall have to complete his/her B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) Five Years Integrate Course in a prescribed period of 8 (Eight) years maximum including the year of admission.

13. CONDUCT OF REPEAT EXAMINATION

- 13.1 The Repeat Examination for the Odd Semesters shall be conducted in the month of March, whereas the Repeat Examination for the Even Semester will be conducted in the month of July. The Result of the Repeat Examination shall be declared within One Week from the completion of the Examination.
- 13.2 A candidate who fails or has got a re-appear in the Odd and Even Semesters subjects may appear in the Repeat Examination.
- 13.3 A candidate who is to appear in the Repeat Examination shall be required to deposit the required fee and to submit the Application Form within seven days of the declaration of the May Examination.
- 13.4 A candidate shall be allowed to take the re-examination on the payment of the prescribe fee only.
- 13.5 For students who take the Repeat Examination, the Detailed Marks Card shall carry the letter "R" next to the course concerned.

14. DETENTION OF STUDENTS AND OTHER RELATED MATTERS

- 14.1 A student who does not qualify in the required number of papers of the previous classes both through the End-Term Examination as well as through the Repeat Examination shall be detained as per the University Regulations. S/he shall not be promoted to the next higher class.

- 14.2 The detained student may re-appear in the papers s/he has failed in the Semester Examination (odd or even as the case may be) by way of availing the permissible number of chances.
- 14.3 Where a student is attending the classes of the next semester provisionally before the declaration of the End-Semester / Repeat Examination and is subsequently found ineligible for not qualifying the required number of papers, his/her provisional promotion to the next class shall stand cancelled automatically.
- 14.4 The detained candidate shall be required to pay the hostel charges / mess bills on the monthly basis for his/her stay before the declaration of result. In such cases, stay for any number of days in a calendar month shall be treated as stay for the whole month and the candidate shall pay his/her bills accordingly.
- 14.5 Where a candidate has already deposited the fee / for the next class before the declaration of result of the previous class and subsequently got detained because of the non-fulfilment of the eligibility conditions, the fee /charges paid by him/her may be adjusted in the fee payable on fulfilling of the eligibility conditions in the next academic year. However, if the student opts for discontinuation of study at the University, the semester fee may be refunded after deducting the hostel, mess or other charges as given in the Regulation 14.4 above.
- 14.6 A detained student may take casual admission for attending classes of the subject/s in which s/he has failed. In such a case, she/he pay the prescribed fee per subject per semester in addition to the hostel / mess charges.

Explanation: In case of casual admission, a candidate need not meet the condition of minimum attendance. However, s/he shall abide by all rules and regulations relating to the maintenance of discipline on the campus as well as in the hostel.
- 14.7 In case Odd Semester classes are in progress, but the candidate is detained for failing in the Even Semester subjects and vice-versa, such student shall pay the prescribed fee for availing the library and computer lab facilities.
- 14.8 The fee payable by a detained candidate shall be Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) per subject/semester.
