The training programme on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) was inaugurated by Dr. Trailokya Deka, Faculty Member and Convener of the Programme. Addressing the gathering, Dr. Deka stated the objectives of the programme. Mr. Arun Kr. Sarkar, Associate Professor & Coordinator, IQAC, B. P.

Chaliha College, Nagarbera addressed the participants of the training programme. He explained the importance of IPR in NAAC accreditation and assessment of colleges.

Welcome address of the programme was delivered by Dr. Kamal Ch. Pathak, Principa 1, B.P. Chaliha College Nagarbera. He hoped that the deliberations at the training programme would provide valuable inputs into the academic ventures of the faculty members as well as the students. After the welcome address, the training programme commenced.

The First Session started at 11.30 am. The session included scholarly talk of Dr. Pankaj Kumar, Professor, DPIIT-IPR Chair, NLUJA, Assam. His lecture threw light on different aspects of Intellectual Properties such as Patent, Trademark, Copyright, Industrial Design and Geographical Indications as well as historical and philosophical foundation of IPR jurisprudence. He discussed about various stages of Intellectual Property and also gave a glimpse of various career opportunities under IPR. He concluded the session by explaining the importance of IPR.

The Second Session started at 12.45 pm with the talk of Dr. Sharmistha Baruah, Research Officer, DPIIT-IPR, NLUJA, Assam on the topic “Copyrights in Academia”. Dr. Baruah described the concept of copyright, legal status of copyright and the rights of copyright owners. She covered in her speech various relevant issues like, Infringement of Copyright, exception to Infringement, Fair Use, Plagiarism and its various forms and Creative Commons. She also suggested remedies for copyright infringement and various ways of fair use of intellectual property. The session was very informative as she cited some interesting case studies. She concluded her speech by throwing lights on different challenges of copyright protection in the digital era and solutions to the issue.

After lunch break, the third session commenced at 2.30 pm. with the presentation of Mr. Siddhartha Sankar Barua, Assistant Director (Gr.-I), MSME, Government of India. He elucidated on the topic ‘Overview of IPR and Govt. of India initiatives’. His speech primarily emphasised various IPR initiatives of Ministry of MSME, Govt. of India. The Third session successfully concluded at 3.30 pm.

The training programme successfully concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mr. Chiranjib Mili, Faculty Member, Dept. of Botany, B. P. Chaliha College, Nagarbera. The Programme was highly informative for faculty members and student participants. 100 participants comprising the faculty members and students of the college attended the programme.
