NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY AND JUDICIAL ACADEMY, ASSAM
STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURE
FOR
COMMENCEMENT OF ON-CAMPUS RESIDENCY AND
PHYSICAL CLASSES
FEBRUARY 13, 2021

1. INTRODUCTION

National Law University and Judicial Academy (NLUJA), Assam is a residential University, which admits students from all over the country. Albeit a State University, it is unique in respect of its students, who are drawn from all over the country. The cataclysmic outbreak of Covid-19 across the globe, and the concomitant closure of Universities since March 15, 2020 has interposed some challenges to the smooth conduct of academic life. Notwithstanding the constraints spurted by the exigent circumstances, the University has persevered to stay the course.

Upon issuance of guidelines by UGC and the Govt. of Assam with, NLUJA, Assam is contemplating revival of on-campus activity. In view of the varied level of exposure to COVID 19 virus, that the students of the University are susceptible to, owing to their dispersion across the country, the University proposes to initiate on-campus residency and physical classes in a phased manner, with thrust on the outgoing UG and PG students.

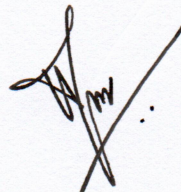

Further, in spite of the best efforts of the University to maintain a well-sanitized and hygienic ambience on-campus, to prevent spread of COVID 19 Virus, the risk of virus proliferation would persist until comprehensive vaccination is achieved in the country. It therefore becomes imperative to have a standard procedure for conducting on-campus activities, in order that spread of virus is averted and health and well-being of students, faculty members and administrative staff members is ascertained.

In view of the above, a SoP is hereby announced to regulate on-campus activities and the same is binding upon on all students who, of their volition, seek to avail hostel residency and physical classes.

2. RETURN TO CAMPUS
