

Centre for Tribal Law, Policy and Justice

The Centre for Tribal Law, Policy and Justice aspire to contribute in the nation building by looking inwards and introspect on how the notion of justice for tribal women, children and indigenous tribal communities in the region will be best served and secured. As an initialization process towards ensuring inclusive growth for the tribal communities in the region the center endeavors to create an ambience of holistic approach towards tribal issues from dimensions of sociology of law in tandem with the constitutional spirit of equality and fraternity among the diverse communities in the region. In its attempt to steer the idea of tribal justice towards a more coherent, cohesive and coeval tribal law, policy and justice the Center proposes the following programs:

1. Book project on Tribal Law Policy and Justice likely to be published by March- April, 2023.
2. Outreach programme:
  - Pro- bono lecture series in Chaurachandpur district of Manipur in the month of January, 2023.
  - Career Guidance for students of Higher Secondary School, Rayburn School, Manipur in the month of January 2023.
  - Pro- bono lecture series in Aijawl in with collaboration with Mizoram Government Law College in 2023.
  - Probono lecture series on Dima Hosao Tribe of Assam in 2023
  - Probono lecture series on Khasi tribe in the month of June, 2023.
3. Mutli-disciplinary lecture on Tribal themes
  - Legal History of tribal communities in the region, proposed 2023
  - Tribal Autonomy and Constitutional Privileges, proposed in 2023.
4. National Level Seminar on 'Status of Tribal Customary Laws and Insitutions in 21st Century India' targeted to be organized in 2023.