

National law University and Judicial Academy, Assam

IQAC Cell and Centre for Career Counselling and Capacity Building

Organised Special Lecture on

'Criminal Justice System in India: A Need for Technology Based Reforms'

Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and the Centre for Career Counselling and Capacity Building of National Law University and Judicial Academy (NLUJA) Assam had organized a special lecture on

'Criminal Justice System in India: A Need for Technology Based Reforms' which was delivered by Mr. Sidharth Luthra who is a practicing Senior Counsel in the Supreme Court of India. Prof. (Dr.) V. K. Ahuja Vice-Chancellor NLUJA, Assam welcomed the guest and apprised the students of the various achievements of the resource person. Mr. Luthra, in his lecture, raised the concerns of privacy in the larger context of including technology as a part of the criminal justice system. He interacted with the students of the university and explored the possibility of e-First

Information Reports (FIRs') being considered as the norm. The learned Senior Counsel further emphasized on the application of human mind and the need for a humane approach in dealing with cases, failing which would lead to the departure of justice. Dr. Amol Deo Chavhan, Associate Professor of Law, in his capacity as the Director of IQAC played an instrumental role in the smooth conduct of the event along with Gopika Gopal (Batch of 2027) who presented the welcome address and Tushar Azad (Batch of 2027) who delivered the vote of thanks to the resource person and to the audience gathered.

