

Report of Special Lecture on “Evidentiary Value of Dying Declaration”

Date :1st March 2024
Venue : Academic Building
Attendees : 60
Organised by : Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and Centre for Career Counselling and Capacity Building

On March 1st 2024, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and the Centre for Career Counselling and Capacity Building jointly organized a special lecture on the “Evidentiary Value of Dying Declaration”. The distinguished speaker for the event was Hon’ble Mr. Justice Mir Alfaz Ali, Director, Judicial Academy Assam and Vice-Chancellor I/C National Law University and Judicial Academy, Assam a highly respected legal luminary known for his expertise in criminal law and evidence.

The primary objective of the lecture was to enhance the understanding of students about the importance and nuances of Dying Declarations as a crucial piece of evidence in criminal proceedings.

The lecture took place in the Lecture Gallery, Academic building during 12:00 to 1:00 PM with an impressive turnout of students eager to delve into the intricacies of Dying Declarations. The event commenced with a warm welcome by Dr. Amol D. Chavhan, Director of IQAC to Hon’ble Mr. Justice Mir Alfaz Ali, followed by special lecture.

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Mir Alfaz Ali delivered an insightful and comprehensive presentation on the evidentiary value of Dying Declarations. He elucidated the legal principles, landmark cases, and the evolution of the concept over time. The lecture also delved into the challenges and controversies surrounding Dying Declarations.

Following the presentation, there was an engaging question and answer session where the audience had the opportunity to seek clarification and further insights. The session facilitated a dynamic exchange of ideas and perspectives.

The special lecture on the evidentiary value of Dying Declaration by Hon'ble Mr. Justice Mir Alfaz Ali proved to be an enriching and intellectually stimulating experience for all participants. It not only enhanced the participants' understanding of the legal intricacies but also provided a platform for meaningful interactions and knowledge-sharing within the legal community.

The organizers, IQAC and the Centre for Career Counselling and Capacity Building, are committed to organizing such enlightening events in the future to contribute to the continuous learning and professional development of legal practitioners and enthusiasts alike.