About Centre

National Law University and Judicial Academy, Assam (NLUJAA) Centre for Career Counselling and Capacity Building has been established to provide guidance in various aspects of law and its surrounding arenas with an academic and action-oriented focus on shaping a student's career. We believe that excellence in work can be achieved through honing one's skills and we are constantly working to assist students who face challenges in developing their skills. With new aspects of law and an increase in career opportunities emerging in the recent times, we recognize the importance to stay relevant for which we conduct activities which are essential to a student's professional career. We understand the myriad choices that students have regarding their career preferences for which we conduct activities on various aspects of law and humanities. Our approach involves recognizing the requirements of a law student in order to help them maximize their potential.

About course

The Centre for Career Counselling and Capacity Building, National Law University and Judicial Academy, Assam has commenced its new tenure for the academic year 2022-2023. The members of the Centre have geared up to make this Centre a platform for building interpersonal and advocacy skills and increase the outreach of the NLUJAA fraternity. In view of the same the Centre aims at introducing various new means and methods in enhancing the skills of the students through hands-on experience in the field of Law. In lieu of the same, Centre proposes six-month Judicial Training Programme for NLUJA Students. The course will cover the syllabus of various state Judicial Examination.
