FROM THE VICE-CHANCELLOR'S DESK

National Law University and Judicial Academy (NLUJA), Assam, established by the Government of Assam, by way of enactment of the National Law School and Judicial Academy, Assam Act, 2009, NLUJA, Assam is the first NLU to have been established in the North East India and is steadily burgeoning as one of the best law schools of the country. In the last one decade of its nascent journey, NLUJA, Assam has endeavoured to scale the heights of success and has successfully established its metier among top 20 law universities of the country (as per the NIRF, MHRD); that apart, international recognition has also been bestowed upon the University for its leading-edge pedagogy in imparting leading education.

The University concertedly focuses on academic rigour and ingenious research, in order to hone the skills and aptitude of its students. The course curriculum of the University is refurbished intermittently with the view to imbibing the latest development of the domain.

Further, Research Centres of the University provide the students with the opportunity to explore a wide range of research areas and cultivate their knack for academic inquiry.

In order to animate the learning experience of the students, the University has accoutred its teaching-learning system with contemporary ICT Tools and techniques such as A-View, Text to Speech Reader, Book Reading Software, e-Mooting Facility etc. The University Library offers its rich resources towards enrichment of the students. Apart from the focus on curricular activities, the University endeavours to acuminiate the students professionally by encouraging their participation in moot court exercises, debates, mock trials, workshops, seminars. In cognizance of the fact that mere academic accomplishment sans social empathy hamstrings the development of human personality, the University endeavours to inculcate social responsibility and respect for civic duties in students by facilitating their engagement in legal-aid activities and community outreach programmes.

In order to effectuate the transmission of classroom learning into praxis, the University supports the students to undertake internship programmes, which not only provides them with an opportunity to expand the vista of their academic engagement but also navigate the practical dynamics of the workplace. Thus capacitated, the students are ready in every respect to contribute professionally to the growth of the institutions/organization they are to serve in future.

As the head of the institution, I invite your company executives to NLUJA, Assam to interact with the students, assess their potential and provide them with an opportunity to work with your esteemed organization. I am confident that, students of NLUJA, Assam would prove to be assets for organizations they work with. I take this opportunity to thank you for your support to the University and I am sure our relations will grow from strength to strength, each passing year.

Prof. (Dr.) V. K. Ahuja
Vice-Chancellor,
National Law University and
Judicial Academy, Assam

FROM THE REGISTRAR'S DESK

Dear Recruiter,

It is an honour to present to you the determined and passionate students of the B.A. LL.B. (Hons.) Batch of 2022, National Law University and Judicial Academy, Assam (NLUJA). NLUJA, Assam prides itself as the first National Law University in the North-Eastern region of India, ensuring the proliferation of legal know-how in the region. Established in the year 2009, the University has within a short span of time made its mark among the top 20 law institutions of the nation, as per NIRF-MHRD Rankings 2021. NLUJA, Assam believes in the holistic development of its students and always strives to motivate and encourage them for development of their legal, analytical, interpersonal and communication skills.

The University, despite being in its nascent stage is growing by leaps and bounds in various spheres ranging from infrastructure, academics, administration to establishment of various research centres for providing proper exposure and guidance to students in order to channelize their potential.

The B.A. LL.B. (Hons.) Batch of 2022 has exhibited its strength by being a part of various national & international competitions, including moot court exercises, client counselling, mediation, parliamentary debates, etc. The students have presented and published research papers in notable seminars and journals. Also, they have undertaken internships at various law firms and legal institutions and have excelled in both curricular and extra-curricular activities.

I strongly believe that our students will turn out to be devoted and competent lawyers and be an asset to your esteemed organisation. I take this opportunity to welcome you to our institution and build on this spirit of cooperation and trust during the recruitment process and beyond.

Dr. Indranoshee Das (ACS)
Registrar
National Law University and
Judicial Academy, Assam

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

National Law University and Judicial Academy, Assam was established by the National Law University and Judicial Academy, Assam Act, 2009 (Act No. XXV of 2009) as the fourteenth National Law University of the country and is located in Guwahati, the capital city of Assam. Hon'ble, the Chief Justice of Gauhati High Court is the Chancellor of the University. The objectives of the National Law University and Judicial Academy, Assam are

- To impart comprehensive legal education and training at all levels to achieve excellence in legal education
- To promote research in all branches of law
- To disseminate legal knowledge by organising lectures, seminars, symposia, workshops and conferences on contemporary issues of law
- To promote legal awareness in the communities to achieve social and economic justice
- To promote cultural, legal and ethical values with a view to fostering the rule of law and the objectives enshrined in the constitution of India, and
- To liaise with institutions of higher learning and research in India and abroad in order to create a platform for exchanging intellectual ideas on legal education and research.

Presently National Law University and Judicial Academy, Assam is offering the following courses:

- B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) Five Year Integrated Course
- One Year LL.M. Degree Programme and
- Ph.D. Programme

The University proposes to conduct Certificate and Diploma / Degree Courses through distance and online mode under the aegis of the various Centres established by the same for Advanced Legal Studies and Research. The Centres have been set up by the University with the intent to addressing the socio-legal issues and challenges specifically of the North-East region. Some of the Centres have been conducting seminars, conferences, and training programmes and research projects on research areas / target groups pertinent to NE India.

RECRUITMENT COORDINATION COMMITTEE

FROM THE FACULTY ADVISOR RECRUITMENT COORDINATION COMMITTEE

I avail this occasion to introduce our students in final year of the five-year integrated legal education programme (B.A.-LL.B. 2017-2022) in National Law University and Judicial Academy Assam, a premier institution of repute located in Guwahati; a gateway to the North-East India. I hereby welcome prospective employers explore ability and agility of our outgoing students; prepared to join the market in time ahead.

Here there are emerging talents in diverse knowledge domain of law, e.g., commercial law, corporate law, cyber law, energy law, human rights law, intellectual property law, alternative dispute resolution, and the like. I'm confident that prospective employers will find our students worthy enough to add value to their respective areas of interest.

We house students on merit basis. Their default hometowns are scattered across the country. Therefore, the batch is enriched with regional diversity, healthy gender balance; and thereby oriented to function as team members in cosmopolitan workplace; something non-negotiable in contemporary age of liberalization-privatization-globalization. Being integral stakeholders of well-established institutional brand, named 'National Law University', our students are committed to maintain competitive quality while in service as ambassadors of the alma mater they belong to.

AWARD OF GRADE POINTS

B.A.,LL.B. (HONS.) FIVE YEAR INTEGRATED COURSE

The University follows a Ten (10) Point Grading Scale (as given below) for evaluation of students' academic performance.

SL. NO.	GRADE POINT	LETTER GRADE
1	10	O
2	9	A+
3	8	A
4	7	B+
5	6	B
6	5	C

In order to pass in each course a student is required to obtain a minimum Grade Point of 5 (Grade C). Any Grade Point below 5 shall be considered as Fail (F).

Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) $S_i = \sum (C_i \times G_i) / \sum C_i$ *
Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) = $\sum (C_i \times S_i) / \sum C_i$ **

* Where C_i is the number of credits of the i^{th} course and G_i is the grade point scored by the student in the i^{th} course.

 Where S_i is the SGPA of the i^{th} semester and C_i is the total number of credits in that semester.

SL. NO.	GRADE POINT	LETTER GRADE
1	10.00	O (Outstanding)
2	9.00 – 9.99	A+ (Excellent)
3	8.00 – 8.99	A (Very Good)
4	7.00 – 7.99	B+ (Good)
5	6.00 – 6.99	B (Above Average)
6	5.00 – 5.99	C (Average)

(Each academic course has been assigned 5 Credits)

For higher education / recruitment purposes if some equivalence needs to be reflected between CGPA awarded and percentage, the following formula may be referred to:
(CGPA x 10 = Percentage)

ON-CAMPUS PLACEMENT RULES

Introduction

On-Campus Placement activity at National Law University and Judicial Academy, Assam is conducted under the aegis of the Recruitment Coordination Committee (RCC) constituted by the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor. The Recruitment Coordination Committee (RCC), a body comprising of faculty members, students and administrative staff, endeavours towards providing pre-placement training sessions to students and facilitating the process of on-campus recruitment.

Recruitment Coordination Committee (RCC)

The responsibility of the RCC includes:

- a. Conducting training programmes for students on regular basis in order to hone their soft skills.
- b. Updating the inventory of firms and companies who would be invited for on-campus placement on a regular basis.
- c. Maintaining close liaison with the firms and companies.
- d. Identifying agencies for conducting evaluation test for major recruitment drives.
- e. Facilitating administrative requirements for actual conduct of on-campus placement drives.
- f. Maintaining record of students eligible for placement, their resumes, contact details and other relevant information.
- g. Maintaining recruiter feedback and improvising on-campus placement strategies based on the inputs thus received.
- h. Managing, mentoring and monitoring the placement process and maintaining discipline throughout the placement process.
- i. Initiating disciplinary procedure against students who either do not comply with the prescribed rules for on-campus placement activities or indulge in misconduct during placement activities.

Objectives of the Rules

The On- Campus Placement rules of the University are intended:

- a. To define the overall structure and modality of on-campus placement procedure.
- b. To optimize the number of students who secure jobs through on-campus placement activities.
- c. To build the capacity of students for professional career up to the expectation and satisfaction of prospective employers.

Scope of the Rules

Only students of the pre-final and final year of B.A.,LL.B (Hons.) Five Year Integrated Course and outgoing students of LL.M One Year Degree Programme are eligible for on-campus placement.

Placement Rules

- a. Students registered with the RCC can submit applications seeking to participate in recruitment drives announced by the university until they have been offered a placement through formal placement offer by a recruiting company/firm.
- b. Students shall be permitted to receive a maximum of one job offer and the same must submit the job offer acceptance letter to RCC and the recruiting company/firm within the stipulated time. Any student who is offered a job by a company/firm would be kept out of the ambit of consideration for further placement drives.
- c. The offer of placement (by the company) and its acceptance (by the student) shall be communicated through the office of the RCC only.
- d. If a student receives more than one offer in a session / day and if there is a delay in the announcement of results by some companies, the student is bound to accept the job offer of the company whose result has been declared on time.
- e. If the results are declared on the same session / day, the student may choose from the offers in hand and inform the RCC of his/her choice, within 24 hours of announcement of results.
- f. Job Offer announcement on the notice board will be considered as firm offer. Offers received from companies must be collected by concerned students as per timings in circular / notice. The responsibility of going through the offer letter and taking actions therein such as submission of documents lies entirely with the student. All offers (made by the companies) shall be through the RCC only. This office will not be in a position to resolve problems, if any, that may arise with respect to offers made directly to the student by the company.
- g. Students who are placed in one company/firm and waitlisted by other companies will be given five (5) working days to accept the offer on hand. The RCC in the meantime will inform the company, where the same is waitlisted, about their present offer. The company that has waitlisted the students is required to release the offer or delete the name from the waitlist within two days, so that the student can make a timely decision.
- h. Students are not permitted to approach any company/law firm on their own, all liaison activities are to be routed through the RCC.
- i. Students are required to submit a soft copy of resume to the placement committee before the commencement of on-campus placement drive. The format for the resume and the time-frame for submission of the same shall be duly communicated by the RCC.
- j. Students are advised to carry a hard copy of updated resume in the prescribed format during their personal interview (PI) with the recruiter
- k. All information provided in the resume must be correct.
- l. If a company/law firm is interested in screening more candidates, then the RCC may advise other students (registered with the RCC but not selected for the specific placement activity) to submit their application on the spot.

Note for Recruiters

All companies/firms conducting on-campus placement drive at National Law University and Judicial Academy, Assam are requested to release the Offer Letters and hand over the same to the RCC within an hour after completion of the recruitment process. The students should inform the acceptance of offer within 24 hours (on the day following the release of offer). The company shall be intimated of the offer acceptance within three days of release of offer.

Short Listing Process

- a. The recruiter may short list students on the basis of information submitted by the students in the resume.
- b. If the process of short-listing devolves on the university, the same shall be based on criteria such as:
 - I. CV based evaluation
 - II. CGPA

Procedure for Withdrawal from a Particular Placement Drive

A student can withdraw from the placement drive conducted by a particular company to which he/she had applied after the pre-placement talk by submitting a written application to the RCC in a timely manner.

Code of Conduct during Campus Placement

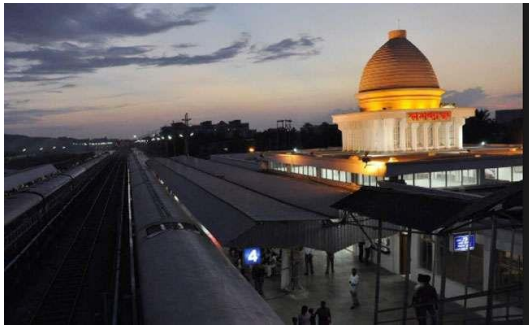

- a. Students are required to observe discipline and conduct themselves responsibly.
- b. Students are required to report 30 minutes prior to the pre-placement talk or interview.
- c. Students are required to keep copies of documents/ certificates/ photographs and updated resume sequentially arranged in order (minimum 2 copies) during PI. Further, it is advisable that soft-copies of all relevant documents pertaining to curricular and extra-mural activities of the students reflected in the resume are kept ready at hand.
- d. Students are advised to bring institute I-card at the time of written tests and interviews.
- e. Students are advised not to approach the company/law firm personnel directly
- f. Students are advised to maintain cordial relationship with the recruiters. Any inappropriate behaviour of students will not be tolerated and will result in disciplinary action by the university.
- g. Students are required to maintain appropriate dress code during placement drives.
