Call for Papers: National Law University Assam Law & Policy Review (NLUALPR), Volume VII

About NLUALPR

The NLUA Law & Policy Review (NLUALPR) ISSN: 2455-8672, is a faculty run double blind peer reviewed journal published by the National Law University and Judicial Academy, Assam. The primary objective of the Journal is to serve as an important academic forum for legal scholarship. The Journal shall publish scholarly articles, comments on recent decisions by courts, legislative analysis and solicits reviews of latest books from renowned connoisseurs of law. All submissions shall undergo a rigorous editorial process devised to hone and strengthen tone and substance.

The Editorial Board of the Journal welcomes the submission of unpublished original articles, research papers, book reviews, and comments for its upcoming Volume VII.

Categories for Submission

The submission can be sent under the following categories:

- 1. Research Papers and Articles: Word limit shall be between 7000 to 8000 words, inclusive of footnotes and a short abstract (250-300 words), outlines the main questions or themes addressed in the paper. Papers in this category are expected to engage with the theme comprehensively, examine literature comprehensively and offer an innovative re-assessment of the current understanding of that theme. It is advisable, though not necessary, to choose a theme that is of contemporary importance. Purely theoretical pieces are also welcome.
- 2. Case Comments: Word limit shall be 4000 to 5000 words, inclusive of footnotes. It may also involve an analysis of contemporary Indian or International judicial pronouncements relevant to the theme. It must identify and examine the line of cases in which the decision in question came about and comment on implications for the evolution of that branch of law.

3. Book Review: Word limit shall be around 1500 to 2000 words for review of a book relevant to the theme. The reviewer should identify the relevant arguments put forth by the author and present a comprehensive analysis of the same.
