1. COURSE OBJECTIVES

When it comes to understanding the laws relating to sexual minorities in India, the focus is largely on de-criminalization of homosexuality and transgender rights but the truth remains that there is an entire gamut of international and national legal regime governing the lives of people falling under the LGBTQIA+ umbrella. The objective of this course is to enhance the understanding of the students on various international instruments, national legislations, judicial decisions etc. pertaining to the sexual minorities.

The objectives of the course, in particular, are as follows:

- To familiarize students with the conceptual framework of rights of sexual minorities as human rights;
- To familiarize them with terminologies such as LGBTQIA+ and SOGI
- To provide them with an understanding of the rights of sexual minorities vis-à-vis international human rights law as well as Indian constitutional law, criminal law, family law and;
- To analyse legal regime governing sexual minorities from a gender perspective;
- To enhance capacity of students to form their own opinions on vital issues pertaining sexual minorities.

2. TEACHING METHODOLOGY

The teaching methodology shall aim at the generation of critical thinking among the students. The topic for a particular class shall be informed to the students beforehand and readings shall be assigned to them for the said topic. They are expected to have a basic idea about the topic prior to the class. Subsequent to a brief lecture on the topic, there shall be class discussion on the same as well as on the readings assigned. Pursuant to the class discussion, the teacher shall substantiate the issues raised and answer any questions posed or left unanswered. Case study method shall be also adopted for relevant topics. Movie review will be used as well.

3. EXPECTED OUTCOMES OF THE COURSE

At the completion of the course, it is expected that the students shall:

- Comprehend the subject matter of the course
- Be able to analyse contemporary problems faced by sexual minorities in the light of the concepts learnt
- Be able to articulate their ideas on the subject matter of the course
- Produce at least one research paper of publishable quality
