

Samvidhan Diwas 2024 Programme Organized under the Aegis of NSS Unit, NLUJAA

The National Service Scheme, Unit, National Law University and Judicial Academy, Assam (NLUJAA), in collaboration with the Central Bureau of Communication, Guwahati, Ministry of Information & Broadcasting, Government of India, commemorated Samvidhan Diwas 2024 with a three-day Integrated Communication and Outreach Programme (ICOP) from 25th to 27th November 2024. This event highlighted constitutional values, emphasizing the significance of India's Constitution.

The programme commenced on November 25 with a quiz competition to engage students in a dynamic exploration of constitutional principles. An inaugural ceremony followed, graced by Hon'ble Justice Soumitra Saikia of Gauhati High Court as the Chief Guest, alongside esteemed dignitaries including Vice Chancellors from prominent universities. The lighting of the lamp and insightful speeches set the tone for the celebrations.

Day 2 witnessed discussions on crucial contemporary topics, including fundamental rights in the digital age. Distinguished speakers provided thought-provoking perspectives, fostering interactive sessions. The highlight was a panel discussion on "Constitutional Morality in Contemporary India," featuring eminent panelists and a vibrant exchange of ideas.

On Day 3, a debate competition explored pertinent constitutional issues. The valedictory ceremony recognized and celebrated the efforts and achievements of participants and contributors.

This ICOP, supported by the NSS Unit of NLUJAA, not only celebrated the Constitution but also inspired critical discourse among students and stakeholders, embodying the spirit of Samvidhan Diwas 2024.
